

MST - 1 August 2023
BE II Information Technology
ITR3C2: OBJECT ORIENTED PROGRAMMING

Duration: 70 Minutes

Max. Marks: 20

Note: Attempt ANY 4 questions, Make suitable assumption if necessary. All question carry's equal marks.

1. Define how java works. Write a program to demonstrate it.
2. What is class? Explain anatomy of class with a program.
3. Write a program for following there are two players (A and B) both guess a number randomly you need to determine which player has guessed a greater number and declare him as winner.
4. Write a program for following there are three classes square, circle and triangle each class calculates area and perimeter of the given geometric figure (name of class) and all the classes are controlled by a controller class and prints its result. (you can take any instance variable)
5. Explain getter and setter methods with a program and also explain for what purpose they are used.